DIWALI

This is how I Celebrate Diwali

On the day of Diwali we woke up early in the morning. We took a bath with fragrant oil and soap. Then we wore new clothes. As a responsible citizen of the country we decided to celebrate Eco Friendly Diwali. To avoid noise pollution we just burst flower pot and sparkles. We gave best wishes of Diwali to everyone. We gave sweets to our neighbours, family and friends.

In the evening we put beautiful Rangoli outside our house and lit the lamps. As a family together, we worshipped Goddess Laxmi. We also hung lantern and lights in our balcony.

We enjoyed all five days of Diwali.
